The House Passes a Bill Appropriating $1,710,000 for the Indian Department. A Chapter of Casualties. The House Committee Recommended the Appropriation of $450,000 for the fast mail and $470,000 for the Indian Department.

(Special Dispatch to The Tribune)

ST. PAUL, Minn. Dec. 16.—Dispatches received here this morning state that the House passed a bill Saturday, duplicating bonds stolen from the Manhattan bank. The House committee recommended the appropriation of $450,000 for the fast mail and $470,000 for the Indian Department.

It is expected that Blaine will call up his resolution again today. He wants an investigation at once.

The entire Illinois delegation have united in a letter to the President in favor of Judge Briggs, of Chicago, and he probably will retain his office.

Senator Thurman declines to run for governor of Ohio because he cannot subject himself to the strain of such a canvass. His friends who consider his election to the governorship of Ohio as necessary stepping stones to the presidency are much disappointed.

Secretary Sherman has sent the sub-treasurer and banks instructions as to resumption.

Senator Lusk's bill inquiring into the amount of silver coined and used in the payment of the public debt, is said to be the chief wedge for an investigation of Secretary Sherman's attitude towards the silver bill, and the obstructions he has put in the way of its operations.

Coaling's friends explain his indifference to Blaine's resolution debate, as covered by his having an important brief in a case before the supreme court.

The authorities at Lincoln, Neb., are looking for J. P. Richardson, who murdered a female named Anderson, and has been since found to have been the murderer of a Mrs. Harrison and three children.

It turns out that Mitchell and Ketchum, who were lynched, tortured and burned to death in Foster county, Neb. last week, were both innocent men. Steps are being taken to arrest the perpetrators of the outrage.

In Hammond, a New York scientist, offers to test Mollie Fancher, the girl who has caused so much sensation by living with a dead man, putting up any sum over one thousand dollars that she is a fraud.

Princess Alice, of England, Grand Duchess of Hesse, died Saturday of diphtheria.

A mob lynched three negroes, near Lake City, Florida, on Saturday, accused of murder, burning and robbery. The fourth one escaped.

Telegrams from Gen. Robert regarding the Arizona situation state that the country around Shipton Garden is friendly, there being no opposition in the neighborhood. Khazk Pash has been occupied by Gen. Bid this morning.

Corporal Schaffer Killed by One of His Comrades.

Fort Buford, D. T., Dec. 14.—The Post was thrown into intense excitement last night by the report that Corporal Edward Schaffer, company G, Sixth Infantry, had been shot by a private of the same company, named Smith, which report proved to be true. All evidences thus far elicited proves the act to have been premeditated, and without just provocation. Schaffer was a young man of good promise, of a kindly genial disposition, and of fine moral character. His parents reside at Galveston, Ind., and he was a member of Giverson Lodge No 223, I. O. O. F., at that place. The murderer is in irons under close guard.

Great Excitement at Fort Berthold. (Special Dispatch to The Tribune.)

Fort Berthold, Dec. 15.—Considerable excitement existed at this post to-day, caused by the arrival of three runners from Sitting Bull's camp, with the information that the noted chief was restless and moving south and that he had thus far been successful in getting the Rees and Gros Ventres to join his ranks.

OBJECTS TO PET NAMES.

A "Typo" Takes no Back-Talk from a Representative's Brother.

For a week past, THE TRIBUNE has been praying, as it were, for a sensation. One that would "harrow up the very soul" of the plebeian Bismarcker. Conscious of this a TRIBUNE man, upon whom fate has stamped even to his fingers' ends the title of "typo," wended his way to the opera house last Saturday night, where "plenty laid in store." The duration was brief.

Mr. Harry Gray, brother of the Hon. Ansley Gray, (member of the Territorial House of Representatives), entered and it was evident that he had met the "typo" somewhere in his travels, as he greeted him warmly by calling him pet names and shaking a "pop" in his face. The "typo" invited his antagonist to take a walk around into the alley. They proceeded as far as the street when their blood became so excited with rage that they could not move—except a deafening wrangle with their tongues. Young Gray raised a revolver and wanted to know if there was anybody who thought he didn't have "sand." The revolver was seized by a bystander and two blows were planted in his face by the "typo" after which the loving twain were summarily dispersed. Whether a duel will yet be fought remains a secret.

BISMARCK REPRESENTATIVES.

The Delegation Chosen to Attend the St. Paul Convention.

The delegation appointed from this city to attend the St. Paul convention, which convenes next Wednesday, for the purpose of devising means for the improvement of the Sault Ste Marie canal, thus inaugurating cheaper transportation to the seaboard for Northwestern products, left this morning. The delegation is composed of Messrs. Chas. M. Cushman, chairman; John Davidson, Wm. A. Bentley, Justus Bragg, Geo. M. Bird, Col. Thompson, Judge Van Etten, and John A. Rea. In St. Paul they will be joined by Messrs. Peter Simms, R. S. Munger, Col. Lounsberry and Stanley Huntly, which will give Bismarck and surrounding country a fair and impartial representation of her interests in the proceedings of the convention.

The object of the convention is a good one, and should it prove as successful as the indications now predict, a saving of many millions will result to the producers of the Northwest.

The delegation will probably not return before Saturday night.

THEIR FIRST DEER.

Two Sports Capture Their First Deer—In the Animal Kingdom.

Armed to the teeth and full of determination, three deadly enemies to the roaming beast, started on Wednesday morning last for a two day's hunt, which they had to their entire satisfaction. The party was composed of Messrs. J. K. Wetherby, Dr. Bigelow, and the well-known shot, Judge Bowen. Their camping-ground was about fifteen miles down the river. The smiles that illumined the countenances of Mr. Wetherby and Dr. Bigelow upon their return was convincing evidence that they had killed their first deer, and Mr. Wetherby in his frantic efforts to cut the animal's throat, had cut his finger with his unruly jack-knife to such an extent that more shooting was useless. Dr. Bigelow shot a so called deer, but under better circumstances. The Judge, as the story goes, killed a prairie chicken, but was the best cook in the outfit. The manner in which he prepared beefsteak, bacon, onions and potatoes in the samadhi, lent a delicate flavor to the whole, which was heartily relished by the party.

A HEAVY TRAIN.

Thirteen Six Mule Teams Arrive From the Hills.

Thirteen six mule trail teams arrived from the Hills Thursday last with about 80,000 pounds of freight. But little bad weather was encountered, and the trip was made in good time. These freighting trains are now so systematically managed that their arrival can be counted on almost as promptly as the trains on the railroad.

A train is now nearly loaded to start out from this city, with 85,000 pounds of freight, and will probably leave to-day or to-morrow. This cleans out all the fall freight, and goods can now be handled as fast as they arrive.

Social Enjoyment.

The Episcopal social held at the Sheridan House, on Thursday evening last, was a highly enjoyable affair. About seventy-five were present and the evening's entertainment throughout was wrought with amusing incidents, pleasant chats, social greetings and hearty welcomes. The large dining hall being cleared and good music furnished the party finally glided into the "dreamy waltz" and "social qua-

FROM BISMARCK TO FT. BUFORD

A PLEASANT TRIP 235 MILES OVERLAND.

The Stage Line an Excellent One and the Scenery Sublime—Fort Stevenson, the Smallest and Neatest Post on the River—A "Tony" Hop, Attended by "Tony" People—The Ranchmen on the Line.

(Special Correspondence of The Tribune.)

THE JOURNEY.

FORT BUFORD, Dec. 7.—A trip to this point from Bismarck would be to some, even in summer, a disagreeable one, but to the writer it proved a most pleasant one, indeed. Mr. J. S. Winston, the proprietor of the stage line between the two points, has spared no expense in fitting up the stations belonging to him, while the ranchmen along the route have done equally as well in securing PASSENGERS' COMFORT.

There are no meek eyed maidens who come to you and whisper, "Strawberry Marangie," "Jeany Linds," etc., yet one is disposed to think that a Bismarck hotel has moved out on the prairie with him when he sits down to the ranchman's table, groaning with game of every description.

THE ADVENTURES.

The thrilling encounters of the first five days, stand out in bold relief on memory's tablet, but to put them on paper would be to quote from the "Dr." (who was one of the party, and is one of those grandiloquent fellows who are ever expatiating on the world to come), "Vain glorious," hence the events of the journey will be passed over with only a

GLANCE AT FORT STEVENSON,

the smallest, as well as the neatest, military post on the river. There is such a comfortable, homelike appearance about the post that one dislikes to leave it, especially when cordially invited to remain by such gallant officers as Col. Moore, Capt. Lee and Capt. Gurley, the latter especially, well known in Bismarck. Col. Moore, the commandant, is a quiet, unostentatious man, who does not seek notoriety, yet on whose record not one blot can be found. But officers' hospitality to strangers visiting their stations, has become proverbial, and it need only be added that the officers garrisoned here are no exceptions to the rule.

AT FORT BERTHOLD,

some 16 miles above Stevenson, and the home of the Red Indians, is stationed, Maj. Alden, whose kindness in showing friends through the agency, is indeed magnanimous. The Indians here, numbering some 1,400, have erected very snug quarters for themselves, and it is stated by the "Dr." who is in some mysterious way connected with the Interior Department, that Berthold is the only agency on the river that has withstood the searching examination of the Inspector.

The Indians speak very highly of Maj. Alden, and Mr. Longfellow, who is in charge of the Traders' store.

There is a peculiar specimen of that infests this Indian agency, however and to a stranger it would seem as though the Agent should rid the Indians of these lowest and most contemptible pests, the "squaw men." They are to be found at all times loafing about tepees, and having no ambition beyond that of "keeping" a squaw, who, in reality, keep them. They are the worst possible hindrance to the civilization of the Indian.

There are two other places along the route that attract the attention of the traveler, and they are Messrs. Grenell and Matthews' ranches. To these gentlemen much is due for the for they have proved that even in this climate one can make a success of farming. Mr. Matthews has purchased 300 cows, which he will bring to his ranch in the spring, at which time he intends going into stock raising on an extensive scale.

Of Fort Buford there is not much to write that would interest the reader. This Post, under Gen. Hazen's skillful management, became known as the best regulated Post on the river, and under Col. Huston's administration, it has lost none of its popularity. There are some 500 men garrisoned here, and yet there is no rest for them, for those not doing guard duty are policing the Post. The officers have splendid quarters, but the enlisted men are living in dinky houses that were built at the time Buford was established. They are to have new quarters, however, in the summer, if our "magnanimous" government passes an appropriation for such buildings.

Messrs. Leighton & Jordan are the Traders at this Post, and though they have of charging for their goods, it is said the Post Council advised such a system; hence the Traders are simply obeying orders.

Major Arthur, who pays the troops on the Yellowstone, and his gentlemanly assistant, are also stationed here.

In concluding, the writer would return thanks to Capt. Day, Thibault, Munson, and Walker, for the kindness extended to him while at their Post.

A "TONY" HOP.

(Special Correspondence of The Tribune.)

FORT STEVENSON, D. T., Dec. 7.—Dear Tribune: Your columns have often given us accounts of life and gayety on the frontier—at the posts of Buford, Keogh and Lincoln, but not a word have I seen concerning the little Post of Stevenson. So, trusting that you may have a vacant space in your next issue, I will attempt to give you an "item." This station is now garrisoned by two companies of the Sixth Infantry, with the following roster of officers: Major Orlando H. Moore, Sixth Infantry, commanding; Captain J. P. Schindel, Sixth Infantry, company H; Captain D. Mortimer Lee, Sixth Infantry, company K; First Lieut. A. M. Wetherill, Sixth Infantry, Post Quartermaster, and A. C. S.; First Lieut. D. L. Craft, Sixth Infantry, company "K"; Second Lieut. R. E. Thompson, Sixth Infantry, Post Adjutant; Second Lieut. C. L. Gurley, Sixth Infantry, company H, and assistant surgeon, Thomas A. Cunningham, U. S. A. Post Surgeon.

The winter season of life and gayety has opened, and I must give you a DESCRIPTION OF A BALL.

I witnessed here a few nights ago, when on my way to Fort Keogh. This "affair" was given by the young gentlemen residing at this Post and Fort Berthold, who are not "in the ranks" of their Uncle Samuel. The invitations were gotten up in the highest style of the stationer's art, and read as follows:

The members of the Fort Stevenson Musical and Dancing Club, request the pleasure of your company at their first hop, on Tuesday evening, Dec. 3, 1878. G. Ates, President. Thomas Schandel, Secretary.

This hop was given at the elegant residence of Mr. Big John, an old resident of Stevenson. Armed with an invitation, I proceeded to the ball. Upon entering the parlors I was fairly startled with the array of

"BRAVE MEN AND FAIR WOMEN."

There was the handsome George Ates, with the "entrancing" brunette, Miss "Stock-a-rick," clinging gracefully to his arm, and then came in quick succession the following:

Miss Brocky Dick, escorted by Mr. Taylor Jaydavis, of Fort Berthold. (This was conceded by all to be the handsomest couple on the floor.) Mr. Thomas J. Schandel and Miss Inogene Dixey. Miss Dixey is here spending the winter. She is a great favorite with all the gentlemen, and is particularly noted for her lustrous black eyes. Mr. Morse and Mrs. Nagie; Mr. Nagle and Miss Whitehat; Mr. Drake and Miss Woods. But I cannot take more of your valuable space. The above names will suffice to enable you to see how it was. The music was furnished by Professor Gearing and orchestra. The Great Western band from St. Paul had been engaged, but owing to one of the telegraph poles between here and Fort Buford being down, was unable to put in an appearance. The waltz music coming on, we could stay no longer.

"TONY" AN AFFAIR

I almost forgot to state that just before leaving, we had the pleasure of hearing Mr. G. Ates sing the beautiful ballad of "The Man on the Flying Trapeze," accompanied on the Steinway grand by Miss "Stock-a-rick."

But I have written enough for one letter. Will write you again from Keogh.

"WANDERER."

GONE OUT OF BUSINESS.

The Firm of G. W. Poussin & Co. Close Their Doors.

A combination of circumstances, but not particularly a financial embarrassment, has caused the withdrawal from business of the firm of G. W. Poussin & Co., hardware merchants of this city. It is a well known fact that so many hardware stores could not live in so small a place, and as this one was under the heaviest expense for rent, etc., the strain was still harder. Both Mr. Poussin and Mr. Hicks were well liked in this city, and they will be keenly missed in business circles. Mr. Poussin professes to be no extensive business man, stating that he had placed capital against experience, but now both had the experience, and neither had the capital. The stock more than pays all indebtedness, and Mr. Poussin allowed the business to stop simply because it was not a paying investment. Mr. Hicks is absent at Fort Pierre, having power of attorney to sell several teams and wagons belonging to Mr. Poussin. The report circulated that he will not return is probably false, as the firm have done nothing more than to close up business, and are paying a few creditors in stock.

Driven Out By the Snow.

Gen. Thos. L. Rosser and party who have been surveying the extension of the Northern Pacific west of the Missouri returned to this city last Monday, on their way to Minneapolis. They have the road surveyed west of the river twenty-five miles, at which point they were compelled to stop on account of cold weather and frozen ground.

This survey is now ready for the constructors to begin work, and as the company have advertised for bids, the construction will doubtless begin as soon as spring opens.

Territorial Immigration.

The land office at Springfield has been quite busy during the past month of November. The report shows the following amount of business: 181 homesteads, covering 19,755 acres; 24 timber cultures, covering 3,536 acres; 45 pre-emptions, embracing 6,320 acres. There were also 88 homesteaders who had complied with the law; thus taking 1,618 acres at about $500. Cash entries were made for 2,436 acres. The receipts during November were about $9,000.

COURT NEWS FROM YANKTON.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE GRAND JURY OF THE U. S. COURT.

The Largest Business in the History of any Grand Jury in the Territory—Forty-Five Indictments Found—Sitting of the Territorial Supreme Court—The Gentleman from Wales Indicted.

(Special Correspondence of The Tribune.)

THE CAPITOL.

YANKTON, D. T., Dec. 10.—After a siege of over three weeks the grand jury of the U. S. district court, adjourned, leaving only two days for the arraignments of the indicted and the completion of the business of the term. The Territorial supreme court was booked for to-day, and its sitting could not be postponed. Judge Moody had arrived from the Hills, traveling over 1,000 miles—the distance from his district in the Hills to the seat of the supreme court. Judge Barnes was on his way from Delavan, Wis., his old home. The non-arrival of Barnes necessitated an adjournment of the supreme court until to-morrow. Chief Justice Shannon says the term will be an unusually long one, and will be signalized by the final disposition of a number of important cases.

THE INDIAN FRAUDS.

To summarize the business of the U. S. grand jury, I can say that forty-five indictments were found, the largest business in the history of any grand jury in the Territory. Some of them were "sockdolagers." One of those indicting Livingstone covered a ream of paper, figuratively speaking. It embraced an inventory of the medical dispensary of the Crow Creek Indian agency. The names taxed the pronouncing power of the Assistant U. S. District Attorney, J. E. West. The total number of indictments found against Livingstone was ten, and with two to six counts in each indictment. They alleged for gery, conspiracy, embezzlement, and all the other incidents thereto. False vouchers, farming utensils, a lot of tobacco, and a dispensary of medicine figure most prominently in the papers on the Crow Creek agent. There are two other Indian indictments not made public. Jointly with Livingstone are indicted his clerk, head farmer, interpreter, and an employee or two. One man came all the way from Wales, to appear as a Livingstone witness, when his trial came on.

THE WELSHMAN WAS INDICTED

for his pains, and will have occasion to stay here longer than he anticipated. Livingstone will plead on the 23d. His lawyers are Bartlett Tripp, S. L. Spink, (the Demosthenes of Dakota,) as Judge Shannon calls him, and Mr. Gamble. The trial will probably not come off before next April.

The grand jury found fifteen indictments against timber thieves; several for horse stealing from Indians, and several for selling whisky to Indians. An indictment was found, but not made public, against Lieut. H. C. Johnson, of the First Infantry stationed at Lower Brule post. Johnson was dismissed from the army last March for a grievous offense not down in our note book. Several parties subsequently compared notes and found that Johnson had sold them seven pay accounts of $128 each, that were either forgeries or were valueless through off-sets at Washington for government property in his care and not reported. Johnson is a son of the commissioner of customs in Washington, and boasts an elegant family. He now lives in Texas. Judge Campbell, U. S. district attorney, and U. S. Marshal Raymond, are efficient officers. Dakota is lucky. They are men of stamina. The grand jury, witnesses and officers of U. S. court, to date, have cost

EIGHT THOUSAND DOLLARS.

Livingstone's trial is regarded by Secretary Schurz as a test case. It will determine in some measure the wisdom of judicially calling to account the behatted Indian agents. They have all been beheaded this year, on the Missouri from Yankton to Wolf Point. The last to fall has been Dr. Irwin, of the Red Cloud agency. He was "sold" with poor Lo, but had a row with Col. D. B. Irwin, of the New York Herald, who reported the "hyena" of the Indian inspectors, Gen. Hammond, to the agency. A general inquiry proves that Irwin was a friend by virtue of his reckless issues of flour, corn and clothing. The sacks of flour were cut open for the sacks. Five hundred bushels of corn were scattered over the prairie at one time.

A DOCTOR BY DEGREES.

Yankton has a distinguished doctor. His card reads as follows: Ed Kidd, M. D. L. R. C. P. & S. L. R. C. P. E. M. C. P. & S. O. L. M. C. P. Edinburgh. There is no use in disguising the fact: Dr. Kidd is "a very learned Doctor."

Educational Contrast.

In pleasing contrast is the school system adopted by the post council at Lincoln with that of Buford. At Lincoln, however, they are merely carrying out instructions as given in a general order recently published, while at Buford they are not only doing the enlisted man's child an injustice by establishing such an unpleasant reminder of note, but they are instilling into the minds of their own children a germ that will grow with years, making the man an aristocrat in principle, while only a pauper in pocket, which would seem to one "nursed in the lap of luxury" an uncomfortable situation for an imperalist.

IMPERFECT PAGE

John McCullough was at one time playing Yarguinis in Syracuse, N. Y. In the drama occurs the line, "There is no public virtue left in Syracuse." Scarcely had the tragedian sounded the words, when a man in the parquette sprang to his feet exclaiming "No, by jingo, nor in Utiky either."

As an indication of the rapidity with which Christianity is making its way in Japan, it is stated that one of the leading printing offices in Tokio has begun the publication of a paper in the interests of the Christian religion as a matter of enterprise. It is solely a native undertaking, none of the missionaries having anything to do with it.

The criminal classes in some of the Western States are imitating the Mollie Maguires by "putting out of the way" the men who are most active in suppressing lawlessness. The last victim is Dr. Daniel Pierson, an Illinois physician of high standing, who was murdered by some one whom he, as a member of a Board of Town Trustees, had assisted to punish.

It was found recently in Cincinnati that while there were at least 10,000 men in the numerous saloons and beer-gardens of the city Sunday night, only 12,467 persons attended all the Protestant churches of the city Sunday morning, though the Catholic churches made a better showing. Of the 12,467, the Methodist churches had 2,575, the Presbyterian 2,211, the Baptist 1,108, and the Protestant Episcopal 1,116.

Statistics of Bible societies indicate no diminution in the vigor with which the scriptures are circulated. The New York society last year distributed 89,854 copies, of which 4,232 were given to hotels and public institutions, 40,698 to seafaring men, and 32,433 to immigrants who arrived at Castle Garden, New York from Philadelphia, since January, over 60,000 Bibles have been sent to Australia and the Antipodes. At the Paris Exhibition the number given away largely exceeds a million.

Mrs. Hayes recently received at the White House the seventy-three female delegates to the Women's National Christian Temperance Union. Two of the ladies made speeches and the President cordially responded, saying that Mrs. Hayes would show the company the house, that they might see what kind of a housekeeper she was. Accordingly Mrs. Hayes escorted them through the mansion, presenting flowers to the two speakers. One of the glass globes of the chandeliers happening to fall during the reception, each lady carried off a piece as a souvenir.

The world owes, in the form of bonded debts, about 23,000 millions of dollars. The best estimates of the amount of gold in the world gives it at 10,000 million of dollars. Yet the world is asked to do all its business and to pay all its debts in gold. A few banking houses in Europe own most of this gold and own most of the mines that produce gold. The figures and the fact tell the story—these few owners have the business of the world at their mercy, and can make a panic like that of 1873 whenever they want to do it. About the only hope there is for the payment of this enormous debt is through the Millerites.

Jeremiah Collins, of Jefferson City, killed his wife, was tried, convicted and sentenced to be hung. The Governor, upon application of the District Attorney, commuted the sentence to imprisonment for life. After serving seven years Collins addressed a letter to the Governor beseeching him to be so merciful as to allow the original sentence to be carried out. He declares, "By so doing you will confer a benefit to me, and it may prove to your earthly advantage." The supposition is that the man is crazy. But does it follow that the supposition is true? Most culprits condemned to die on the gallows, eagerly appeal for commutation, yet it is a fact that many would prefer death to the solitude and weariness of a life imprisonment.

The latest allusion to the domestic life of Charles Dickens is furnished by a London letter to the Amnurn Advertiser, which says: "It will be gratifying to thousands of Dickens' admirers in America to know that the wife of Dickens and Miss Hogart, her sister, are reconciled, and both united in compiling a memoir of the novelist. In an interview one evening with George Cruikshank, last December, at his residence in Hampstead, he told me that the difference which arose between Dickens and his wife grew out of her frequent criticisms, and what he thought intermeddling with his own exclusive creations, until he insisted upon their living apart in the same house at Gads-hill. This she declined to do and at once took up her residence with Mr. and Mrs. Cruikshank. His eldest son, siding with his mother, left also at the same time. Mr. Cruikshank added:—'There was no scandal otherwise connected with the matter.'"

CRIMES AND CRIMINALS.

Bowen, under sentence to be hung at Montreal, has escaped from jail.

By direction of the President, Supervising Architect Hill has been suspended from office during the present indictment found against him at Chicago.

Another bloody fight has occurred, growing out of the late Jackson, Ky. disturbances, in which four men were killed. This last fight took place twenty miles from Jackson.

John Mullen, formerly owner of the rolling mills in Pittsburgh, Pa., was arrested in St. Louis, on the 7th inst., by United States Deputy Marshall Soest, on a charge of concealing his assets of assigns in bankruptcy. He will be taken to Pittsburgh for trial.

A Yankton dispatch says the grand jury have found forty-four indictments against Livingstons and other Indian agents, government employees, and timber thieves. Livingstone, LeClaire, Richardson and Russell have been arraigned on one joint indictment and will plead on the 23d.

A London Telegram says, the Chatterly Iron company has refused the offer of 900 men to resume work at a reduction of 5 per cent. Extensive discharges of workmen in the neighborhood are impending.

A bank at Montreal has received a cable dispatch announcing the suspension of the West of England bank, headquarters at Bristol. Capital stock £1,000,000, and it has forty-nine agencies. Trouble caused by loss of the iron traffic.

The funding board of Louisiana are trying to make such arrangements as will enable the State to pay the January interest on consuls. It is believed that at least $200,000 in addition to the interest fund then on hand will be required.

The Evening Dispatch of St. Louis, including all property and franchises, has been sold at auction under a second mortgage for $2,500, subject to a first mortgage of $15,000. All the presses, material and other properties of the morning Journal, which suspended publication a month ago, were sold at the same time, subject to the same mortgage.

A serious smash occurred on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad shortly before daylight the 11th inst. A west bound freight jumped the track near Laughlin Station and was badly wrecked. One of the brakemen named Fuller, was buried under the debris and when taken out found to be badly hurt. The road was badly blocked at the wreck and passengers compelled to transfer all day.

New discoveries of rich silver deposits continue in the vicinity of Leadville. It appears that nearly two millions pounds of base bullion was transported from Leadville by one route in November, and upwards twice that quantity of high grade. The Colorado Spring shipments alone in November, of base silver bullion, were 1,025,000 pounds. It is evident that the product in silver of the Leadville mines will very largely exceed any estimates hitherto published.

On the 11th inst., a great storm of rain and wind prevailed in the eastern states, sweeping through New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, and a very wide sweep of country, causing inundations on rivers, the sweeping away of railroad and other bridges, interrupting railroad trains and destroying immense amount of property. In some places on banks of rivers people had to abandon their homes, and in some places dwelling houses were swept away. A great loss of life is not reported.

At Youngstown, Ohio, a terrible explosion occurred on the 6th inst., at the upper Briehill furnace. The furnace men were in the act of turning on a blast when the explosion occurred, throwing the hot blast in every direction and covering the men. Robert Lowe, of Newcastle, thigh broken and otherwise seriously injured; recovery doubtful. George Anderson, legs and head badly cut. Patrick Saunders, head and body badly cut. The boss had a leg broken and was otherwise seriously injured. Cause of the explosion not known.

The sugar traders at a meeting in New York city, pronounced emphatically against Secretary Sherman's proposed change in the mode of collecting duties on that article as in the highest degree unjust and impracticable. Instead of decreasing the temptation to defraud, they believe it will have just a contrary effect, and if any changes at all are to be made in the tariff they think it should be so framed as to avoid a discrimination against qualities of raw sugar, whether of high or low grade, and that will conform as near as practicable to ad valorem duty.

It is stated by a Waukon paper, on what is asserted to be reliable authority, that the Waukon & Mississippi narrow gauge railroad, recently purchased by the leading stockholders in the Dubuque & Minnesota road, is to be transformed into a standard gauge road, and the work of extension up through Minnesota commenced early next spring with a view to reaching St. Paul. The line will probably pass through Preston, High Forrest, Kasson, and so on through Dodge, Goodhue and Dakota counties, and will thus prove a competing through line between St. Paul and Chicago.

As an argument against transferring the Indian bureau to the military department, Secretary Schurz alleges a lack of due economy in the habits of the military. He says soldiers never think of the cost of a thing if it is thought to be necessary. As an instance he mentions that at the close of the Sioux war there were about 2,000 horses, ponies, and mules taken from the Indians for which cows were to be given them, and it turned out that these ponies and mules cost $19,400 besides the cows, and that to sell them cost $5,683 additional. This was an instance of the cavalier way which was not found in the interior department.

The English Parliament convened Dec. 5th. The queen's speech, read in the house of lords, was unusually short. Her majesty regrets being compelled to summon parliament earlier than usual, but the action of the ameer of Afghanistan compelled the sending of an expedition into his territory, and the earliest opportunity has been taken to call the parliament together and make to it the communication required by law. Papers on the subject will be laid before parliament. Assurances from all foreign powers are friendly and there is every reason to believe the arrangements for the pacification of Europe made by the treaty of Berlin will be satisfactorily carried out. Estimates for the ensuing year will in due time be submitted to the house of commons. After full deliberation upon the matters which have led to the early meeting of parliament, and after a suitable recess, parliament should proceed to the consideration of measures for the public benefit, which will then be laid before it.

ANOTHER MILL EXPLOSION.

The Anchor Mill of Pillsbury & Co., at Minneapolis Destroyed.

On the evening of the 9th inst., another disaster occurred at Minneapolis which resulted in the destruction of the Anchor mill, C. H. Pillsbury & Co., proprietors. About 8 o'clock Nels Munson, one of the millers, discovered that one of the elevators which conducts the flour from the lower basement to the middlings purifiers in the upper story of the mill was clogged. He took a lantern and proceeded to the basement for the purpose of removing the obstruction. Arrived in the basement, he took the precaution to place his lantern some fifteen feet removed from the elevator, where the difficulty was, but placed it directly in front of the door opening into the elevator. Removing the obstruction he started the elevator once more, when a great puff of flour dust came out of the open elevator door, reaching to the lantern, when "whiff" and there was at once an explosion similar to the great one last spring, only smaller and unaccompanied with its disastrous effect. Munson was badly burned about the head, hands and face, but not dangerously. He immediately stopped the mill and he, together with Theo. Barthoff and W. W. Smith, immediately turned on the water and tried to put the flames out with the hose. It was no use however. The flames ran up all the elevators and then the entire interior of the mill was soon on fire. The alarm was immediately sounded and the entire fire department of the city were on the ground with all speed, but with all their efforts it was impossible to stay the flames.

The fire was confined to the mill which was completely destroyed on the inside. The mill was worth $75,000 and the wheat and flour on hand $12,000 more. There was an insurance of $49,000 on the mill and stock, Mr. Pillsbury says the mill will be immediately rebuilt.

THE SHADOW OF DEATH.

Remarkable Presentiment of Approaching Disolution Possessed by Heller, the Magician.—A Singular Instance.

The magician, Robert Heller, never laid claim to the possession of the power of second sight, which his sister of blonde tresses and regal carriage was advertised as having an inkling of, but Miss Heller laughed at death's approach until his scythe was within five minutes of its harvest, while Robert Heller had an early presentiment of what was in store for him. It was on Saturday last that he arrived in Philadelphia, and on Sunday, in company with his business manager, Mr. John Donnelly, he started toward Concert hall to perfect some arrangement preparatory to the season's engagements that he intended playing in that city. He had just received a letter from his intimate friend, E. A. Sothern, in which the impersonator of Lord Dundreary spoke of the trouble he had with his attack of incipient paralysis. Walking up Chestnut street, Heller suddenly experienced a twitching in his arm, and was obliged to stop. To his manager and friend, Mr. Donnelly, he said: "Sothern had an attack of paralysis, and now my turn has come." Six times in the short walk from the Continental hotel, at Ninth street, to Fifteenth street, was Heller obliged to stop. Before Heller was noted as a quick-witted and quick-fingered conjuror, he achieved fame as a brilliant performer upon the piano, but it was long before his audiences smiled upon and applauded him. One night—an occasion that he never after tired of talking about—he played "The Last Rose of Summer" in such effective style that his listeners shouted their approval, and Robert Heller had won a lasting name. On Monday night, in Concert hall, when the entertainment was interrupted by his illness, Heller made his apology to the audience, and said, before dismissing them, he would give a brief performance upon the piano. His pale face and actions showed that he was suffering, but he sat down before the piano and played "The Last Rose of Summer" again and for the last time, and played as his best friends unite in saying, he never played it before, not even on that night when he achieved his first success. As he left the hall he said: "I will never play again." Boris de Bodisco, the 13-year old son of the Russian diplomat who is among "the missing," along with his mother and elder brother, seemed to have a most distinct presentiment of the founding of the ill fated Pomerania. Before his departure from Philadelphia for New York to embark it was noticed that he frequently spoke of his fear that the ship would go down. "Oh," said he, the night before he started, as he buried his remarkably handsome face deep in the long fur of his favorite little Spitz dog, Seymour, owned by a young lady friend— "oh, Seymour, suppose our ship should sink and I should be drowned." Those who listened lovingly to his childlike fear recall distinctly now the shiver of the coming fate which passed over his noble frame.

Views of Prominent Bankers of New York on Resumption.

[New York Special to Chicago Tribune.]

A prominent banker in Wall street, in conversation this morning, gave his views in regard to the rumor that a movement was on foot among the banks to hoard gold and thus hinder resumption. The banker said he did not think any such movement was in progress. The rise in the gold premium was simply owing to a stock-gambling operation intended to depress stocks. It would only take a small amount of money to lock up a million of gold. If, by doing this, stocks could be depressed about five points, a large profit would accrue to brokers. The action of the clearing house, the banker thought, would soon be reversed. Many banks in the late meeting are already regretting their course. The Clearing-House association has no ill-feeling toward the people, and, if they found the best interests of the country demanded it, they would reverse their action. The banker thought resumption would be accomplished in January without any difficulty. Although, perhaps, detrimental to himself personally, he was free to admit that resumption was best for the country. He had heard, from what he thought a trustworthy and official source, that, upon the reassembling of Congress, a bill would be introduced making legal-tenders at once redeemable in gold or silver. This, if passed, would bring about resumption immediately. Another equally well-known financier thinks the action of the Clearing-House association more deliberate than many suppose. They were nothing but a set of speculators, having in view only their own interests. They pretended they want to sustain the government. If this was their intention, they should have acted in the opposite manner. They should rather have turned a cold shoulder upon gold coin. The United States has declared that the silver dollar of 412½ grains shall be the equal of the gold dollar. If not yet, it would be the duty of banks, as true representatives of the people and the trade of the country, to do all in their power to make silver worth as much as the gold dollar. By enhancing the premium on gold the people are made to suffer, encouragement is given to stock-gambling, and the revival of business prosperity is seriously interfered with. Instead of aiding the government, the banks are weakening it. If they want to be patriotic they will recede from their false, damaging position, and make a clean breast of it by declaring themselves ready to assist the government.

The London Lancet says that ague is now such a rare disease in England that researchers into its pathology and etiology have been little prosecuted of late. The majority of medical writers hold that the sole cause of fever and ague is the prevalence of marshes, but there is strong evidence to prove that water has much to do with it. The Lancet points to the prevalence of the malady at Cyprus as offering an excellent opportunity for a careful inquiry at the instance of the Government. The sick list there has not decreased.

BISMARCK, MONDAY, DEC. 16, 1878.

The Bismarck Tribune has a Jenkins that is hard to beat—as a Republican. While the Republican has an editor who is like a base-drum—easy to beat.

The readers of THE TRIBUNE may look for some spicy letters from the pen of "Rex," who has been engaged as Fort Buford correspondent.

That the Indian must be the prey of someone is a foregone conclusion; but which department, the War or the Interior, will gobble him next, is still in doubt.

GRANT for President in 1880, heralds several exchanges. Yes, THE TRIBUNE will support Grant for president in 1880—of Bulgaria, or an intropacific fishery school.

Thanks to Congress, there will be no meddling with the tariff question, this year. The people would rather pay exorbitant taxes than to have a lot of blockheads tinkering with them.

The army reorganization commission have agreed upon a plan cutting down the regular army to 22,000 or 23,000. They should make another "cut," but next time it should be their own throats.

The end of the world is predicted in the near future by the Seven-day Advents. As Peter Cooper says, "The Greenback party will control the future of the country," it may be as well to stop the machine now and avoid the future.

FAR to is also wide-awake on the cheap transportation scheme. A meeting was held last Saturday and delegates chosen to attend the convention at St. Paul on the 15th. The Northwest, and especially Dakota, will be well represented.

SECRETARY OF WAR McCrary seems to be the only sound minded man in the cabinet, regarding the Indian troubles. He thinks that the only way to conquer the Indian is to tickle him about the heart with a small, round piece of lead.

THROUGH some inexcusable neglect on the part of the Post Office department, last Monday's TRIBUNE, which was placed in the Post Office of this city Tuesday, failed to reach its Fort Lincoln readers untill late in the week. As this is no fault of THE TRIBUNE, it would modestly ask, why such neglect?

Gov. WADE HAMPTON, of South Carolina, who while out hunting a few weeks since, fell from his mule and broke his leg, had it amputated last Tuesday, and thereby saved his seat in the United States Senate, which honor was conferred upon him by the Legislature immediately after the amputation.

PERHAPS the only instance on record of an editor's voluntarily leaving a $3.00 per day job, is that of E. B. Frink, of the Moody County. Enterprise, who recently at his own request, was discharged from duty as a grand juror before the Yankton court. His readers should look out for him. Such freaks are but tokens of insanity.

THE gun-wad, alias the Yankton Press and Dulottian, is still at its old tricks of clipping its Territorial news from its industrious, hard-working contemporaries, without due credit. But then it is such an insignificant sheet, and recognized by so few, even in its own neighborhood, that its scalings are considered as those of a putative child.

A DELEGATION from Yankton visited Milwaukee the other day for the purpose of securing the extension of the Iowa Division of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad from Portlandville to that town. This benighted town begins to see the drowsiness into which it has drifted, but it is too late. The capital must and will be removed.

It is stated that never before in the history of Washington were there such crowded galleries of "beautiful women," as at the opening of the 45th Congress. Arrayed in the finest garments, bedecked with rare diamonds, and fresh from the paint brush of "delicate colors," these consumptive ladies rush to Washington yearly in the hopes of "mashing" a senator.

SENATOR Blaine delivered a long harangue in the senate on Wednesday last regarding the alleged Southern frauds, the object being to make a solid north, the country to be ruled by the north and about one-half of that to rule the other. Blaine's next move will probably be to narrow the ruling power down to the single state of Maine.

THE Niobrara (Neb.) Pioneer is aching to get into a newspaper controversy. When THE TRIBUNE notices such uncouth action on the part of its esteemed contemporary it feels that it is its duty to chastize it severely. The poor girl should heed THE TRIBUNE's warning and keep away from such base intrigues as the Yankton Press and Dulottian, Sioux City Journal, Fargo Republican, and journals of that clan.

THE Custer massacre, the Nez Perces campaign and the Bannock war should be sufficient to open the eyes of the government to the fact that a handful of soldiers before an Indian outbreak are as powerless as a cat in the clutches of a lion. But no: a few eastern bigots continually clamor for a reduction in the army, which is now dwindled down to a mere skeleton, and advocate the sending of Quaker philanthropists with their psalm books to "civilize the Injun."

THERE is in the hands of the treasury department nearly $30,000,000 being held in trust. What is going to be done with it? It is made up of the Chinese indemnity fund, amounting to about $1,000,000; The Geneva award and the aggregate of the residue of the cotton sales during the war. The latter might be profitably expended in helping a few of the fever-stricken cities of the South, where thousands are now dying in want. The crops in many places could not be taken care of and thus those living on plantations are equally distressed. It will be many years before the South will recover from the terrible outrages of Yellow Jack, and that section is as much a part of the Union as the states of Illinois or Michigan.

RIVER FREIGHT.

Benton Exports and Imports During the Year 1878. [Fort Benton Record.]

The following list of imports and exports via the Missouri river during the past freighting season is compiled from lists furnished by the merchants and freighters of Benton. The values of shipments are estimated at Eastern prices, to which should be added at least twenty-five per cent. for Mexican prices, and from forty to sixty dollars per ton for transportation. The list shows an enormous increase over last year's shipments. The following are the exports:

Kleinschmidt & Bro.—120 tons ore; 37 tons wool; furs, hides and buffalo robes, 10 tons; total, 167 tons; value, $5,000.

Geo. Clendennin, Jr.—750 beef cattle; 75 tons wool; total, 600 tons; value, $40,000.
 W. S. Wetzel & Co.—Robes, furs and peltries, 5 tons; value, $28,000.
 Total, 1,832 1/2 tons. Value, $651,587.

The imports during the year were as follows:

Murphy Neel & Co.—1,900 tons M. freight, valued at $470,000.

T. C. Power & Bro.—2,750 tons M. freight, $687,500; 100 tons N. W. T. freight, $5,000; 800 tons Gov. freight, $200,000.

I. G. Baker & Co.—1,000 tons Benton freight, $210,000; 400 tons N. W. T. freight, $90,000; 300 tons M. freight, $75,000.

Kleinschmidt & Bro.—1,900 tons M. freight, $475,000.

W. S. Wetzel & Co.—530 tons M. freight, $132,500.

Total, 9,680 tons, valued at $2,410,000.

Five hundred tons of imports shipped by I. G. Baker & Co., were credited to the receivers and forwarders. The total amount of Baker & Co.'s shipments was 2,200 tons.

Extensive Mining Business.

[Black Hills Times.]

Within the short period of less than two years, fifty odd quartz mills, aggregating over 1,000 stamps, with a capacity of 2,500 tons of ore per twenty-four hours, have been constructed. To fully impress upon readers the extent of their activity in a region so recently wrested from hostile possessions, it may be well to state that the miners in the Black Hills have in this period, set more mills and stamps to crushing ores than are to be in Colorado and Utah combined; more than are in Montana, Idaho, Arizona and New Mexico combined. The capital already invested in mills and mines aggregates fully $3,000,000.

Yum, Yum.

[Springfield Times.]

This is what he said: "May I kiss you, my darling?" And as the color came to her fair cheeks, and as her heart beat faster than Rarus' heels ever flew in a 2,175 gait, she looked up at him, and with a smile on her lips, this is what she said: "Proposition accepted if promptly executed!"

Montana Wool.

[Helena Herald.]

A gentleman who is connected with one of the transportation companies in Benton informs us that the shipment of wool this season, down the river, exceeded two hundred tons. We believe the entire shipments of the Territory will aggregate three hundred tons, which will net our wool growers $125,000. What are the possibilities of this great industry in the near future?

NEWS AND NOTES.

Why is a printer a good bird dog? Because he is a "setter."

Another open winter is feared by the steamboat men of Duluth.

No grave or safe robbing to record during the week. What is the country coming to?

The contest for the senatorship of Illinois is narrowed down to John A. Logan and Dick Oglesby.

Sioux Falls has three papers, and yet there is a faction who want a fourth—a Police Gazette, perhaps.

Murphy, the red ribbonite, has received 10,000 signatures to his total abstinence pledge, in New York city.

Yankton is to have a special election to vote the necessary means to obtain a steam fire engine and other fire apparatus.

The Chicago Daily Tribune, for once, has changed from a morning to an afternoon paper, a rival of the Yee.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad worked night and day last week on the short line from St. Paul to Minneapolis.

The American House will give a grand ball Christmas Eve Dec. 24th, 1878, at the Central City Opera House, and the best lady waiter is to receive an elegant ring made from Black Hills gold.

Ten Anker mill of Minneapolis, twelve run of stone, owned by Gov. Pillsbury was destroyed by fire last Monday night. The explosion of flour dust is believed to have been the cause. The loss is $75,000, insured for $15,000.

Minneapolis is about to be connected by telephone with St. Paul. The wires will be run to all the leading business houses and offices of each city, so that one can talk with whomsoever he pleases, at a moment's notice, the wires running to a central office, and there connected with the wire running to the party to be interviewed.

Col. Ingersoll says if only seventy Israelites went down into Egypt, and in 215 years increased to 600,000 men of war, the population must have been at least 3,000,000. The census gave them 22,273 first-born males, so there must have been only 22,273 mothers, which would make 1,500 children to each mother. He considers Moses as indifferent a cipherer as Sam Hides.

Hon. John N. Ingersoll, of Michigan, and at one time connected with Greeley of the New York Tribune, was recently the victim of a most heinous outrage, simply because he denounced a candidate of a certain clique whose manipulations have made the very name of the town in which they live a synonym of corruption. The attempt to tar and feather him proved a failure, however, as he kept his pursuers at bay with a cocked seven shooter.

Heavy Damages.
The case of Lucinda Stout against the St. Louis, Kansas City & Northern railroad, in the St. Louis courts last week, was decided in favor of the plaintiff, and the damages placed at $20,000. The plaintiff in this case was injured in the spine, causing paralysis. The accident was occasioned by the overflow of the track from a pond which became full during a heavy rain storm. The defense undertook to prove that the embankment and ditches were properly constructed, and that the fall of rain which caused the track to become submerged, and the road-bed to sink was of such an unusual character that ordinary foresight and skill could not provide against it.

Improving the Upper Missouri.
(Helena Herald.)
The Montana Steam Navigation Company have employed experts and work men, are having boats built, and will immediately commence the improvement of the upper Missouri river. It is the aim of the company to have all the work done this fall that is possible, in order to insure early navigation next spring. Should the winter prove as open as last year, work can be continued until spring without interruption.

THE INDIAN QUESTION.

Dr. Barleigh Thinks He Has Solved The Problem.

Dr. Burleigh, of Yankton, who has had considerable to do with the Indian service and who is, therefore, very well acquainted with the aboriginal red man and the best mode of dealing with them, in an interview at Milwaukee, a short time since, said: "After a careful examination into the present management of our Indian affairs, I am forced to the conclusion that it is a failure. It is very costly to the government and does not materially promote the civilization of the Indians. The Indian race, as a whole, is in my judgment little or no nearer the point of self-support than it was a quarter of a century ago. The untold millions of treasure which during the twenty-five years past have been appropriated for their support and civilization, with a few isolated exceptions, night as well have been thrown into the sea, so far as any good results are concerned."

There is in my judgment, and I have formed that judgment from long and close observation, but one rational, economical, and so far as the Indian is concerned, charitable way of settling this question, and that is to abolish the Indian bureau, turn over the entire management and control of our Indian affairs to the war department, subject only to the laws of the country. Let the Indian agencies and military posts be in close proximity to each other; require the post commander to discharge the duties of Indian agent as well as those of post commander; let the supplies for the Indians be purchased, transferred and delivered through the same sources that the military supplies are; require the district commander, in addition to his other duties, to discharge those required but seldom performed by the superintendents and inspectors of the Indian office; provide for the employment by the military agent, of competent persons to instruct the Indians in the agricultural and mechanical arts; open up all the agencies to the philanthropic and Christian efforts of the whole country, subject only to such wholesome rules and regulations as may be adopted for the municipal governments of the agencies and control of the Indians, and after this is accomplished, compel the able bodied Indians of all tribes to work for their living and do something at least to help support themselves and families."

"Two Orphans" at Fort Lincoln.

Society at Lincoln promises to be very lively this winter. Miss Ella Sturgis, daughter of Gen. S. D. Sturgis, has organized a dramatic association among the officers and ladies at the post, and will in a few weeks present to their coteries of friends that great emotional play, the "Two Orphans."

Miss Sturgis has selected a very difficult play, yet with her support, there can be no doubt of success. Miss Sturgis' interpretation of Bulwer Lytton's great character, "Pauline," in Lady of Lyons, last season, is sufficient proof that she will nearly, if not quite equal Kate Claxton, as Louise.

Navigation for a Month Yet.

The ferry at the Point will probably be able to cross and re-cross for a month yet, as the river is frozen solid both below and above, leaving a narrow passage way clear of ice, for navigation. By crossing several times during the night the ice is kept broken up, which floats down under the ice.

Change of Time.

In order to make time and connect with the trains going East, the stage company have changed the time of departure of their coaches from the Hills, so that they now arrive at 6 a. m., instead of afternoon, as heretofore. No change will be made in their departures at this end, they leaving for the Hills at the usual time, 8 a. m.

Dessert.

Col. Merrill and family left Lincoln last week for Standing Rock, where the former had been ordered.

Gen. S. D. Sturgis, commanding Fort Lincoln, and Lieut. Carroll, Seventh Cavalry, were in town last week.

Lieut. John Varland has been appointed A. C. St. at Fort Lincoln in place of Lieut. Ingalls, who joins his company on the hill.

Lieut. Pope, of the Fifth Infantry, passed through Bismarck last week on his way to St. Paul where he is ordered to sit as a member of the "pack saddle" Board.

A general court martial has been ordered to convene at Fort A. Lincoln for the purpose of trying such cases as may be properly brought before it. Col. French, of the Seventh Cavalry, will doubtless be tried by this court.

Mr. Harry Gray, brother of the Hon. Ansel Gray, (of the Territorial House of Representatives), while calling on his friends on Friday last was presented with a beautiful bouquet of winter roses and will hereafter be known as "the man of flowers."

Pleasant Family Gatherings.

Is there any one who can imagine more complete happiness than a pleasant family gathering—where fathers, mothers and children gather around the hearthstone and each their story tells? A household destitute of such happiness is like a tree bereft of its branches. Christmas is near at hand with all its pleasure for the little ones and to what forward to with anxious expectations as to what "Old Santa Claus" will bring them. Would you disappoint them and see their little eyes filled with tears as they look at their playmates' gifts? Then go and pick out suitable presents for them out of the immense assortment of toys at Simpson's. He has the fullest assortment of School Books, works of fiction, etc., in the city. His stock of Fresh Candies, Nuts, Fruits, etc., are unequalled. All kinds of Musical Instruments constantly on hand. Best variety of hand-lever in the city. All these goods are fresh—the last year's stock being picked off on the public. A visit to his store will convince anyone that he has the largest, best and most complete stock of holiday goods ever brought to this city and is selling them at lower prices than they have ever been offered at before west of St. Paul.

$5.75. Native Coal.
C. W. Thompson has the best native coal yet discovered, and can supply all demands for $5.75 per ton. One ton of this coal is estimated to give as much heat as three cords of cottonwood, saving the consumer about two-thirds the cost of wood, and the trouble of having it cut up. For cooking stoves it cannot be beat. Orders can be left at J. W. Raymond & Co.

Cruel Kitty.

A DITTY BY JOHN BROUGHAM.
Oral murder, mother, Kitty, dear!
I'm wastin' all away;
By reason of your cruelty,
My brains has gone astray.
They tell me daylight has the strength
For to make true suns fly;
So my poor head is emptied
By the bright beams of your eye.
Oral what's the use in life at all
Since you have served me so?
I have no heart for work or play,
Laid down, stand up, or go.
Just like a young tree breathed on
By warm but blightin' air,
Your smile has stole all hope away,
And left me but despair.
Or I would some fairy change me
To a purty bird or flower,
That my Kitty's hands would tend me
Every day and every hour.
For her dear eyes to look on me
I'd be some lifeless thing,
More gladly than, away from them,
To be a mighty king
And when you die I'd like to be Transformed into a stone,
With outside smooth and shinin'
But with heart cold as your own;
That I might stand and guard your grave
When calmly there you rest,
And hear my darlin' Kitty's name
Engraved upon my breast.

The Man Who Knew How to Keep School.

San Francisco Chronicle.
"Mister, no doubt you have all the learnin' that's required in a school teacher, but I want more than learnin' to make a man able to teach school in Cranberry Gulch. You'll soon find that cut if you try. We've had three who tried it on. One lays there in the grave-yard; another lost his eye and left; the last one opened school and left before noontime for the benefit of his health. He hasn't been back since. Now you're a slender build, and all your learnin' will only make it worse, for all our young folks are rough and don't stand no nonsense!"
This was what one of the trustees of the district said to my friend Harry Floote, when he made application for the vacant position of teacher.
"Let me try. I know I am slender, but I am tough and have a strong will," said Harry.
"Just as you like. There's the school-house, and I'll have notice given if you want it done," said the trustee.
"I do," said Harry; "and I'll open next Monday at nine A. M."
The notice was given and there was a good deal of excitement in the Gulch and along the Yuba flats. More than fifty people of both sexes made an excuse to drop into the tavern to get a sight at the fellow who thought he could keep school in that district, and many a contemptuous glance fell on the slender form and youthful face of the would-be teacher.
Eight o'clock on Monday morning came, and Harry Floote went down to the school-house, with a key in one hand and a valise in the other.
"Ready to slope if he finds we're too much for him," said a cross-eyed broad-shouldered fellow of eighteen.
The school-house was unlocked and the new teacher went to the desk. Some of the young folks went in to see what he was going to do, though school was not called.
Harry opened his valise and took out a large belt. Then, after buckling it around his waist, he put three Colt's navy revolvers there, each of six barrels, and a bowie knife eighteen inches in the blade.
"Thunder! he means business!" muttered the cross-eyed chap.
The new teacher now took out a square card about four inches each way, walked to the other end of the school-house and tacked it up against the wall. Returning to his desk, he drew a revolver from his belt, and quick as thought sent ball after ball into the card, till there were six balls in a spot not much larger than a silver dollar.
By this time the school-house was half full of large boys and girls. The little ones were afraid to come in.
Then the teacher walked half way down the room with the bowie knife in his hand, and threw it with so true a hand that it struck quivering in the very center of the card.
He left it there and put two more knives of the same kind in his belt and quickly re-loaded his yet smoking pistol.
"Ring the bell am about to open school,"
He spoke to the cross-eyed boy; the bully of the crowd, and the boy rang the bell without a word.
"The scholars will take their seats; I open school with prayer," he said sternly, five minutes later.
The scholars sat down silent, almost breathless.
After the prayer the teacher cocked a revolver and walked down on the floor.
"We will arrange the classes," he said; "all who can read, write and spell will rise. Of them we will form the first class."
Only six got up. He escorted them to upper seats, and then he began to examine the rest. A whisper was heard behind him. In a second he wheeled, revolver in hand.
"No whispering allowed here!" he thundered, and for an instant his revolver lay on a level with the cross-eyed boy's head.
"I'll not do so any more," gasped the bully.
"See you do not. I never give a second warning," said the teacher, and the revolver fell.
It took two hours to organize the classes, but when done, they were well organized. Then came recess. The teacher went out too, for the room was crowded and hot. A hawk was circling high in the air. The teacher drew a revolver and the next second the hawk came tumbling down among the wondering scholars.
From that day on Harry kept school for two years in Cranberry Gulch, his salary doubled after the first quarter, and his pupils learned to love as well as to respect him, and the revolver went out of sight within a month.

They had found a man at last who could keep school.

Daniel Webster's Wife.

A dainty blue cap, with fluttering ribbons, worn by a white-haired woman caught the eye of a reporter yesterday as he was passing the broad portico of the Leroy mansion in New Rochelle, of the Sound. Something in the face beneath the cap arrested attention. Bright hazel eyes contrasted strangely with the snowy ringlets of hair and the pale, almost expressionless, cast of features. Evidences were not wanting of advanced age, yet a graceful form, slightly above the medium height, made the possessor look stately in her old age.

"Who is that queenly old lady?" was asked of a gardener working near by.

"Mrs. Webster, sir; the widow of Daniel Webster."

The widow of Webster. Seated alone, at the age of seventy-eight, within twenty miles of the great, stirring metropolis, a link between the busy present and the dead, historic past.

"Can you oblige me with an introduction, sir?" asked the reporter of Mr. William Leroy, who at that moment appeared on the ground.

"With great pleasure. Mrs. Webster is my only sister," returned the proprietor. "But," he added, "I am afraid she can not converse much. Her mental faculties are so impaired that she is hardly cognizant of her surrounding, while the past is a total blank."

The reporter was presented to the lady, who received him with courtly grace. Chairs were provided on the elegant little piazza, and a pleasant half hour was spent in conversation.

"I am so glad you have come," was Mrs. Webster's first remark. "I know you admire flowers. Are they not pretty? Miss Woolbert has such a delightful little place too; the prospect from my window would be better than this if there were not so many flowers."

"Do you read much now, Mrs. Webster?" quired the reporter.

They was no answer to this question, but simply a puzzled look. She turned appealingly to her relative.
"The question was reiterated by Mr. Leroy, who at the same time picked up a newspaper from the floor. Then a look of intelligence lighted up the troubled face as she exclaimed. "Oh, yes; I read it through nearly every day."

Caroline Leroy, the second wife of Webster, was married to the great expounder in the City of New York early in 1847, and was constantly with him until his death, on October 23, 1852. Mr. William Leroy and a brother living in Newport, R. I., are the only remaining members of the family.

The New York Mail can't see why it should be a sign of ill-breeding for a man to walk with his hands in his trouser's pockets. It is not so. It is simply a sign that he is not a candidate for office.

VEGETINE
WILL CURE RHEUMATISM.
MR. ALBERT CROOKER, the well-known druggist and apothecary, of Springfield, Me., always advises every one troubled with Rheumatism to try VEGETINE.
Read His statement:
SPRINGFIELD, ME., Oct. 12, 1876.
MR. H. R. STEVENS:—
Dear Sir:—Fifteen years ago last fall I was taken sick with rheumatism, was unable to move until the next April. From that time until three years ago this fall I suffered everything with rheumatism. Sometimes there would be weeks at a time that I could not step one step, these attacks were quite often. I suffered everything that a man could. Over three years ago last spring I commenced taking VEGETINE and followed it up until I had taken seven bottles; have had no rheumatism since that time. I always advise every one that is troubled with rheumatism to try VEGETINE, and not suffer for years as I have done. This statement is gratuitous as far as Mr. Stevens is concerned. Yours, etc.,
ALBERT CROOKER.
Firm of A. Crooker & Co., Druggists and Apothecaries.

VEGETINE
HAS ENTIRELY CURED ME.
BOSTON, Oct. 1870.
MR. H. R. STEVENS:—
Dear Sir:—My daughter, after having a severe attack of Whooping Cough, was left in a feeble state of health. Being advised by a friend she tried the VEGETINE, and after using a few bottles was fully restored to health. I have been a great sufferer from Rheumatism. I have taken several bottles of the VEGETINE for this complaint, and am happy to say it has entirely cured me. I have recommended the VEGETINE to others with the same good results. It is a great cleanser and purifier of the blood; it is pleasant to take and I can cheerfully recommend it.
JAMES MORSE, 364 Athens Street.

VEGETINE
Rheumatism is a Disease of the Blood.
The blood in this disease, is found to contain an excess of fibrin. VEGETINE acts by converting the blood from its diseased condition to a healthy circulation. VEGETINE regulates the bowels which is very important in this complaint. One bottle of Vegetine will give relief, but to effect a permanent cure, it must be taken regularly, and may take several bottles, especially in cases of long standing. VEGETINE is sold by all Druggists. Try it, and your verdict will be the same as that of thousands before you, who say, "I never found so much relief as from the use of VEGETINE," which is composed exclusively of Barks, Roots and Herbs.

VEGETINE
"VEGETINE," says a Boston physician, "has no equal as a blood purifier. Hearing of its many wonderful cures, after all other remedies have failed, I visited the Laboratory and convinced myself of its genuine merit. It is prepared from barks, roots and herbs, each of which is highly effective, and they are compounded in such a manner as to produce astonishing results."

NOTHING EQUAL TO IT.
SOUTH SALEM, MASS., Nov. 14, 1876
MR. H. R. STEVENS.
Dear Sir:—I have been troubled with Scrofula, Canker, Liver Complaint for three years. Nothing ever did me any good until I commenced using the VEGETINE. I am now getting along first-rate, and still using the VEGETINE. I consider there is nothing equal to it for such complaints. Can heartily recommend it to everybody. Yours truly,
MRS. LIZZIE M. PACKARD,
No. 16 Lagrange Street, South Salem, Mass.

Mr. J. A. Rea, who has been at Yankton for several weeks, testifying in the Indian cases, returned to this city unharmed Saturday night. He left this morning with the delegation for St. Paul.

Henry Blakely, the popular agent of the Northwestern Stage Company at this point, leaves next Friday for an extensive trip east, going as far as Kentucky. He will, however, spend the holidays at his home in St. Paul.

Col. Jones, of the New York Financial Record, arrived in Bismarck last week. The Colonel, it will be remembered, was here a few weeks ago, and became so disgusted with the country that he went back, straightened up his business, and has come back to stay.

Gen. A. R. Z. Dawson, a brother-in-law of Judge Bennett, was suddenly called to Iowa on account of the sickness of his mother, but while here received a dispatch stating that she was better. He departed Saturday morning. As Bismarckians don't like to take much back talk, the General made himself somewhat disliked; and by calling a TRIBUNE reporter a liar he virtually settled his future prospects of a mild climate.

The Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, in his lecture on "The Water and the Burden of Society," claims "man's natural life to be 80 years, and as the average life is but 33 years, there must be a waste of 47 years." There is much of truth in this statement. If a man be unfortunate in business, it is attributed to the violation of some cosmos, and law. Now, if a person be taken off in the prime of life, ought it not to be attributed to the violation of some physiologic law? If people only knew better, they would live better and longer; but how can they profit by that which they know not of? The only popular work that meets this great want is Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. In it the great problems of disease and health are fully discussed. The work contains over 900 pages, and 200 colored plates and woodcuts. Price $1.50 (postpaid). Address the author, Dr. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

has removed the agony of rheumatism, and its continued use entirely healed the patient. Rheumatism is but little understood. Some remedies resort to emetics, which are really dangerous. It is now acknowledged to be a blood disease resulting from acidity. This aperient corrects all such acidity, and thus cures the disease. All rheumatic sufferers are advised to try it. 12-10 SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.
